BEST OUT OF WASTE

Date: 29th June 2024

Venue: Courtyard , GDC, Nagpur

Program Report

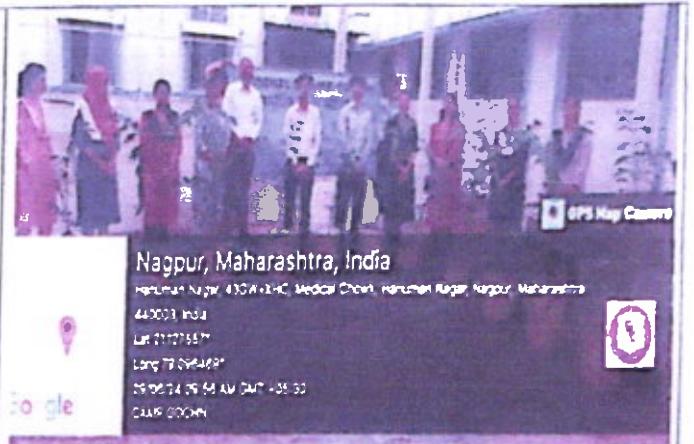

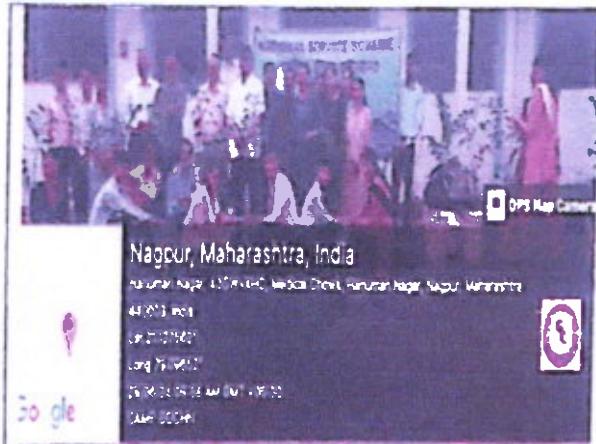

The Government Dental College recently conducted a noteworthy BEST OUT OF WASTE activity, showcasing an innovative approach to sustainability by utilizing empty coloring buckets, previously used for painting the college premises, as plant containers. This unique initiative, organized by the NSS Unit, Nature Club and Department of Public Health Dentistry, aimed to promote environmental awareness, encourage recycling, and enhance the college's aesthetics.

As part of the college's commitment to sustainability, empty coloring buckets were collected, cleaned, and transformed into vibrant plant containers. The students enthusiastically painted these buckets, preparing them for the plantation drive. The activity was inaugurated by Dean Dr Abhay Datarkar who emphasized the importance of trees in combating climate change and the significance of recycling materials. NSS incharge Dr Vandana Gadve, Nature club incharge Dr Damyanti Walkey , Dr Sachin Khatri , Dr Kalaskar, Dr Khalikar, Dr Chauhan, Dr Warhekar ,Dr Modghare, Dr Aniket Dhote, Dr Nupur, Dr Jyoti and Dr Shweta actively participated in the tree plantation. The event saw active participation from 53 First BDS volunteers. Together, they planted a variety of tree saplings, in the prepared buckets. A dedicated team of volunteers which includes First BDS students has been assigned to water and monitor the plants regularly. The plantation drive not only enhanced the aesthetic appeal of the college but also instilled a sense of environmental responsibility among the students. Volunteers distributed refreshments ,at the end , the NSS officer Dr Vandana Gadve announced the end of the program.

Program Report

NSS Group along with the NSS head and all the volunteers of Government Dental College and Hospital, Nagpur hosted a highly successful "Shram Daan" cleanliness event, bringing together students from the first, second, and third years, along with dedicated staff and Vice Dean Dr. Manjusha Warhadpande.

The collective efforts focused on a comprehensive cleanup, spanning the hostel, lawn, and nearby areas, including common spaces like footpaths.

Our vice dean's active participation underscored the importance of a clean and hygienic environment within the educational institution. This collaborative initiative not only visibly improved the premises but also instilled a sense of community, teamwork, and responsibility among the participants.

The impact was not only physical, as the event left a lasting impression on the collective consciousness, emphasizing the value of maintaining a healthy and positive living and learning environment at GDCH Nagpur

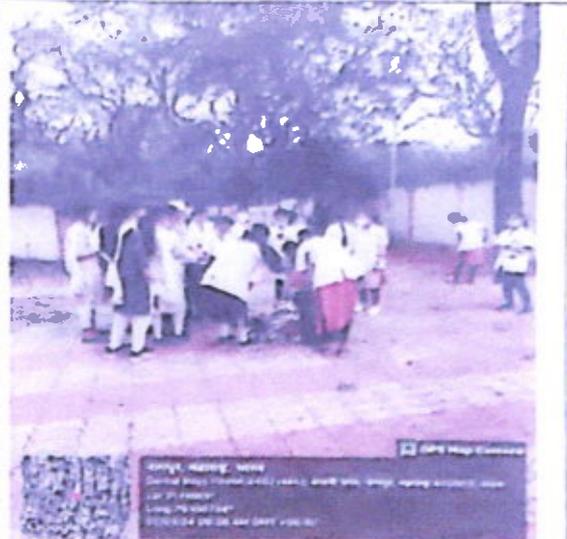

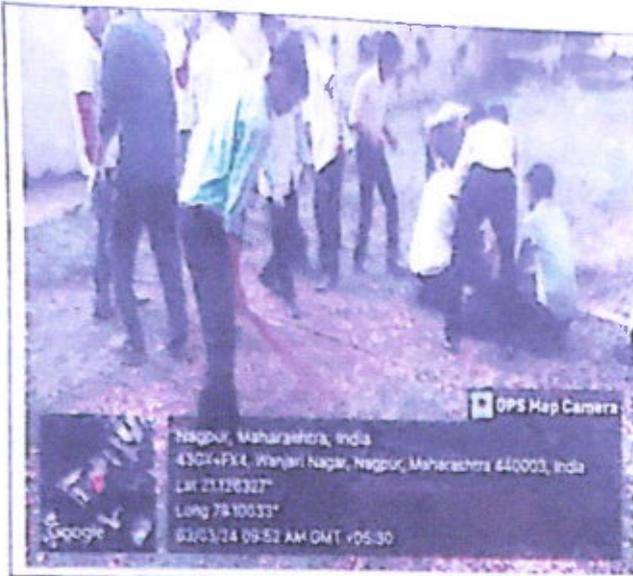

NSS Programme officer Dr Vandana Gadve, Ex NSS Programme Officer Dr Yogesh Rathod, Hostel Warden Dr Shubha Hegde and Dr Yogesh Ingole were present in the activity.

International Women's Day 2024

Date: 11/03/2024

Venue: Auditorium, GDC, Nagpur

Program Report

The NSS unit organized a significant Program On March 12, 2024 in celebration of International Women's Day and in remembrance of Savitri Bai Phule. Held under the insightful guidance of NSS Program Officer, Dr. Vandana Gadve, the event took place in the esteemed presence of Dean, Dr. Abhay Datarkar, Vice Dean, Dr. Manjusha Warhadpande, and special chief guest, Dr. Suchitra Gosavi, former HOD of the Oral Pathology and Microbiology Department and a family member of the GDC Family.

Dedicated volunteers, including Bhavesh Purohit, Radhika Dhok, Abhishek Vishwakarma, Sampati Kumavat, Akshata Ghugal and other supporting students, actively participated in making the event impactful. Their commitment added depth to the celebration aligning with the NSS mission of community engagement and social awareness.

The program featured enlightening messages and videos on "Decoding Women's Modesty" presented by Shalaka Binwale and Dipali Madavi of Prakruthi Foundation. This thematic exploration aimed to promote understanding and respect for women's perspectives, fostering a more inclusive and respectful community.

Adding a creative touch to the event, second-year students showcased a roleplay demonstration, providing a dynamic and engaging portrayal of pertinent issues related to women's rights and empowerment. This interactive element not only entertained but also served as a powerful means of conveying messages on equality and justice.

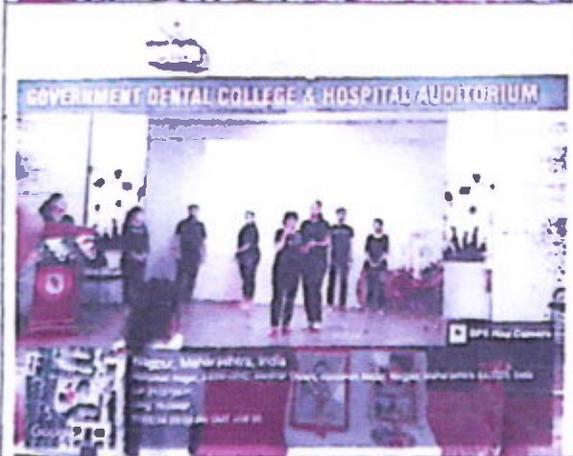

The presence of Dr. Suchitra Gosavi, as the chief guest, added a special dimension to the program, bringing her wealth of knowledge and experience to the forefront. Her insights further enriched the discussions, making the event not just a celebration but an opportunity for meaningful dialogue and reflection.

In essence, the International Women's Day celebration and Savitri Bai Phule remembrance event, orchestrated by the NSS unit, successfully blended education, awareness, and creativity. Under the capable guidance of Dr. Vandana Gadve and with the esteemed presence of Dr. Abhay Datarkar, Dr. Manjusha Warhadpande, and Dr. Suchitra Gosavi, the event served as a platform for fostering a deeper understanding of women's issues and promoting a more inclusive and empathetic community within the educational institution.

ORAL HEALTH EDUCATION AND SCREENING CAMP AT ANGANWATI

Date: 04/03/2024

Venue: Milind Buddha Vihar, Rambagh, Nagpur

Program Report

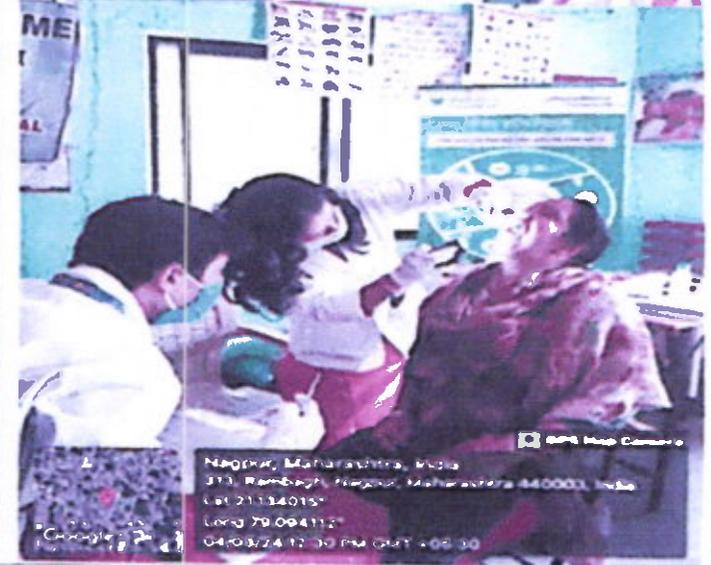

A notable dental checkup camp unfolded at Milind Buddha Vihar, Nagpur, catering specifically to Anganwadi service workers and strategically coinciding with the observance of Endo Week. This impactful initiative, orchestrated under the insightful guidance of NSS program officer Dr. Vandana Gadve and bolstered by the support of Vice Dean and HOD of Conservative Dentistry & Endodontics, Dr. Manjusha Warhadpande, aimed to underscore the significance of dental health within the community.

The screening process was efficiently executed by a team of dedicated volunteers, including seasoned Postgraduates Dr. Rajesh Shende and Dr. Mamta Lanjewar, along with the enthusiasm and commitment brought by the Interns, Jyoti Singh, Nisha Pawale, Mohini Maykar and final-year students Bhavesh Purohit and Kuldeep Polbhare. Their collective efforts ensured a comprehensive assessment of dental health for the Asha workers, contributing to the overall well-being of the community.

Beyond the routine checkups, the camp featured additional enriching components. A special focus was placed on dental hygiene education, with a demonstration of proper brushing techniques. This interactive session aimed to equip attendees with practical knowledge for maintaining optimal oral health in their daily lives.

Total 46 Anganwadi sevika, Madatnis and Asha workers were benefitted with this oral Health Education and Screening camp
